ISM2019

APRIL 7-10 / HOUSTON, TX

GEORGE R. BROWN CONVENTION CENTER

Dear Prospective Partner:

The ISM2019 annual conference is your opportunity to get in front of over 2,500 supply chain and procurement professionals who are interested in learning more about you and your product offerings. Face-to-face meetings are a critical component of any marketing strategy. In fact, according to a report conducted by Meeting Planners International, 40% of prospects converted to new customers via face-to-face meetings, and 28% of current business would be lost without face-to-face meetings.

From a booth in our exhibit hall to a highly visible sponsorship positioning you as a thought leader in your field, our team can work with you to develop the right strategic package to help you achieve your goals.

Sincerely,

Kelly Rich
